MASS MEETING PLANNED TO DISCUSS SCHOOL BONDS

Pros and Cons Will be Considered by Citizens; Meeting of Last Night
Took up Subjects of Interest

A mass meeting to be held on next Monday night to present the pros and cons of the school bonds election is on the tapis. This step is the outcome of a meeting held last night by a number of people concerned in the educational interests of Santa Ana. Look out for announcements.

The Parents and Teachers Meeting called for last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Third Street school house, turned out to be a fathers meeting, with a few mothers in attendance.

The meeting was a largely attended and enthusiastic one, and promises large results.

The first question discussed, "How Much Outside Work Should Be Expected of School Children?" referring to work not connected with school duties, resulted in a consensus of opinion that a reasonable amount of work other than school work is really valuable and stimulating to the general growth of the pupil. The men present cited their childhood days when they were expected to work hard, walking perhaps a long distance to school and otherwise leading a healthy vigorous life. They agreed they were all the better for their outside labors.

Mrs. O. M. Robbins introduced the subject of "At What Time Should School Children Go To Bed?" with an eminently practical and valuable talk, in which she said that reasonably early hours were necessary to the normal development of children; that in fact, no child can be expected to be entirely normal and capable of doing anything worth while in life, if early hours are not observed. Plenty of sleep is particularly necessary in this rushing age, in the whirlpool of which the children, as well as older people, have been caught.

"The Extent of Play Grounds," was another matter of great interest that elicited discussion. It was heartily agreed that the limited playgrounds afforded for the Santa Ana schools were a matter for regret and humiliating to civic pride. Unfavorable comparison was drawn between Redlands, Hollywood, and other progressive, and up-to-date schools and our own. No Santa Ana school but that of Grand Avenue has anything like adequate grounds.

The final question, that of the school bonds election, introduced by W. B. Tedford, was of supreme interest. Every person present recorded emphatic endorsement of the bonds. Objections heard on the street were presented and overcome, and it was finally decided that a mass meeting and demonstration were the next logical steps to be taken in the bonds election matter. Next Monday night was suggested for the mass meeting and the suggestion will probably be acted on.

I expect to show that they planned to get Lonergan into a room and accuse him of assaulting one of the women. I will also try to prove Calhoun's connection with the plot." The jury was sent from the room while Heney made this statement. All the lawyers jumped to their feet, both sides talking at once, creating a scene of wild excitement. Attorney Rogers issued a sweeping denial.

From Burning Car; Gas-
line Cistern Threatened

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., May 6.—Twenty thousand gallons of oil in a warehouse were ignited yesterday afternoon from a fire originating in a string of freight cars in the Denver & Rio Grande freight yards here, and were seemingly beyond control. Machine shops and warehouses were in imminent danger.

A cistern of 44,000 gallons of gasoline located but thirty feet from the burning oil, was in constant danger, and heroic work on the part of the firemen was exerted to save an explosion.

M. M. Honchis, machinist, was injured by an explosion of one of the larger oil tanks. D. C. Clark, roundhouse foreman, was badly injured by contact with a live wire, and several firemen were overcome by the fumes of the burning oil.

At eight he read intelligently Russian, German, French, Latin and began the systematic study of Philosophy at nine. Despite all this, the lad is not bookish, but loves sports.

ITS PRESENT PROVISIONS WON'T BE REMEDY

So Declares Senator Cummins
in Warning Concerning Tariff Revision

DEMAND FOR LOWER DUTIES WILL CONTINUE

Sensational Address Delivered in Senate This Morning by Leader From Iowa

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Warning the senate that if the tariff bill in its present form becomes a law, conditions will not be remedied, and that the agitation for revision will not be still, Senator Cummins of Iowa, made a sensational address in the senate today. He said in part:

"This bill of the senate finance committee will not be accepted by those desiring tariff revision as either the fulfillment of the Republican party's pledge or as a settlement of the controversy.

"If this bill or anything like it becomes a law I predict that the campaign for lower duties will continue with increasing zeal until judgment already entered in the court of public conscience is also entered on the journals of congress.

"It does not give me pleasure to utter this prophecy for I earnestly hoped the revision now in progress would end the dispute for years to come. The time will come when the clamor of millions who want relief will sound like the roar of a thousand Niagaras.

The people are familiar with conditions and are aware what industries breed millionaires. The conclusions of the people are only less infallible than the conclusions of the Almighty himself. I have not abandoned faith in the doctrine of protection but I am little able to discern its true spirit in this policy."

EDITOR OLDER TAKES STAND

Tells of His Kidnapping as Engineered by Brown, United Railroads Detective

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Frederic Older, editor of the Evening Bulletin, took the witness stand today in the trial of Luther Brown, chief of the United Railroads' detective bureau, who is accused of kidnapping him. Older told the story of the alleged kidnapping.

He said he was arrested here by Brown, Attorney Porter Ashe, and two constables from Los Angeles on a warrant from that city charging him with criminal libel. All efforts to get them to take him before a San Francisco judge were of no avail, as they took him to Redwood City nearby. Older declared one of the constables placed a revolver against him to prevent him from making an outcry.

TRAILING OPIUM SMUGGLING GANG

International Operations Betrayed to Officers by Chinese Merchants

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Detectives and secret service men today are endeavoring to trace local members of an international gang engaged in extensive smuggling of opium. The operations of the gang were made known to officials by Chinese merchants here.

The law prohibiting the importation of opium became effective last April. It was known that four hundred thousand dollars worth of opium was on hand with the brokers, and the customs officials have been waiting its appearance to seize it.

The smugglers expected to catch the customs men sleeping but were betrayed by the Chinese merchants. Considerable opium has been seized but it is known that more is hidden somewhere.

The trial of Boyle lasted three and one-half hours of actual work. The jury was out only forty-five minutes. The penalty for kidnapping is from one year to life imprisonment. Before the jury reported the verdict and while the prisoner was still in the courtroom, Mrs. Boyle was arraigned and the work of getting a jury to hear her case was begun.

FIGHT PROMISED ON WATER RATE

Supervisors May be Haled Into Court to Show Cause, Etc.

EL CENTRO, May 6.—The supervisors of Imperial county have refused to fix the water rate for Imperial Valley on the plea of lack of jurisdiction. All the mutual water companies claimed that they are not public service corporations, not having water to sell for general delivery, and, therefore, are not subject to the state law, which provides that supervisors fix rates.

The petitioners for a water rate declare they will at once start mandamus proceedings in the Los Angeles District Court of Appeals to compel the supervisors to fix the rate.

ELKS PARADED ON STREETS AT NOON

Good Old Laughs Done up in Blue Ribbon on Tap for Tonight

The Elks had the street today at noon as they will have the Grand Opera House stage tonight. At noon the Elks' Minstrels parade was held, scores of people seeing the men pass and hearing the music furnished by the Columbia band. The parade was led by Parke S. Roper, W. F. Menton and C. D. Lester. Following them came the band and after the band some forty Elks. The Elks paraded were linen dusters and carried canes bedecked with ribbons.

Tonight's show will be the kind that makes people double up with laughter. The end men are trained to the minute. There isn't one in the bunch that has taken lessons dodging grape fruit and cabbage. The stunts that will be put on are new and original, and local hits—well, you'll get yours, so you had better be out and see about it.

NEW COUNTY VETERINARIAN WITH NO LICENSE RECORDED MAY LOSE HIS $1500 JOB

There are those who are looking for the scalp of Dr. H. J. Stevens, county stock inspector and veterinarian, and it is rumored on the streets that action may be begun by other veterinarians to put him out of the office to which he was recently elected, and the pay of which began today. The ground upon which proceedings are talked of is that Dr. Stevens has no state license on record in this county. The office carries a salary of $1500 a year, and was sought by a majority of the veterinary surgeons in the county. The new stock inspection ordinance went into effect yesterday afternoon.

TWO LICENSES FOR JUST ONE WEDDING

Los Angeles Man Discovered
That Los Angeles Document
Was Not Good Here

Ignorance of the law cost Samuel Kristensen of Los Angeles, $2 yesterday and delayed his wedding about an hour. Kristensen, who is 49 years of age, may never have had reason to learn that a license if used at all must be used in the county in which it is issued. If he had ever been in possession of that fact, the prospect of putting a marriage license into use so frustrated him that he lost memory of it.

Yesterday he had a license from Los Angeles county. With Clara M. Ainsworth of Santa Barbara, aged 51, he dropped down into Orange county for the ceremony.

But the preacher had an objection. He knew, even if the prospective husband did not, that a Los Angeles marriage license was not worth fifteen cents on the dollar when it came for active service in Orange county.

Kristensen debated. Should he journey to the clerk's office in this county and make a new purchase, or should he double on his track and seek a minister of the gospel at Artesia? The former course was decided upon, and yesterday afternoon County Clerk Williams poured oil on the troubled waters. Kristensen wanted to put the Los Angeles document in on a trade for the new one, but Williams wanted $2 cash and got it. Kristensen then made the office a present of the Los Angeles purchase.

ROOSEVELT IN NAVY DEFENSE

Admires Japanese and Wants
Justice But Preparedness
Brings About Peace

NEW YORK, May 6.—In the current number of the Outlook, out today, is an editorial by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, which in part follows:

"There are certain elementary principles, all of which should be kept in view if a nation wishes to act justly both by itself and others. It must insist upon what is necessary for its own healthy life, this even at the cost of a possible clash, but this insistence upon what is due itself should always be accompanied by all possible courtesy to and fair dealing with others. These are the principles upon which the people of the United States should act with regard to the question of immigration of Japanese into this country. The Japanese are a highly civilized people, of extraordinary military, artistic and industrial development. They are proud, warlike and sensitive. I believe our people have, what I personally have, a profound and hearty admiration for them. But this admiration and respect is accompanied by the firm conviction that it isn't to the advantage of either people that emigrants from either country should settle in a mass in the other country. Japan would certainly object to incoming masses of American farmers, laborers and small traders; indeed, the Japanese would object to this at least as strongly as the men of the Pacific coast and Rocky mountains object to the incoming in a mass of Japanese workmen, agriculturalists, laborers and men engaged in small trades.

"The Japanese certainly object to Americans acquiring land in Japan.

"That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them; and in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost miraculous cures effected by his Golden Medical Discovery, which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach, liver, invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional disorders, nervous prostration, weakness, migration of uterus and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and depressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of published testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic drains, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other disorders, caused by weakness, migration of uterus and other affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.

at least as much as Americans in far western states object to Japanese acquiring land on our soil. Americans who go to Japan and Japanese who come to America should be of the same general class; that is, they should be travelers, students, teachers, scientific investigators, men engaged in international business and men sojourning in the land for pleasure or study. It is against the interests of both nations that such unrestricted emigration or settlement in mass should be allowed as regards either nation. This is the cardinal fact in the situation and it should be recognized by both countries.

"But in achieving this policy we should bear steadily in mind that it is our duty to combine maximum efficiency with minimum offensiveness. Only a national government can carry out such a policy effectively, and the surest way to do harm is for state, municipal or other local governments to pass laws which would be ineffective to obtain the real object, yet would produce international irritation. The best of all possible ways in which to achieve this object is that which the government of the two countries have now by common agreement adopted. For the Japanese government has, of its own initiative and own accord, undertaken to prevent the coming of any appreciable number of Japanese of the classes to which I referred.

"The success of the policy must be gauged by the actual results; that is by the extent to which it arrests the immigration of large bodies of Japanese. If the Japanese government proves unable to carry its policy through then undoubtedly this government by treaty or legislation must protect itself and secure the desired result on its own initiative, but in such case it would be doubly incumbent upon us to take action that would provoke the least possible friction and cause the least possible hard feeling.

"The fact that all really patriotic far-sighted Americans insist that hand in hand with the policy of good will toward foreign nations should go the policy of upbuilding our navy is often interpreted by well meaning but short-sighted men as being a threat towards other nations, or as being provocative of war. Of the two assumptions the first is utterly unwarranted, the second the direct reverse of the truth. We have the right to say for instance what immigrants should come to our shores, but we are powerless to enforce this right against any nation that chooses to disregard our wishes unless we continue to build and maintain a first class fighting navy. We Americans are ourselves proud and high-spirited and we are not always by any means far-sighted. If our honor or interests were menaced by a foreign power this nation would fight wholly without regard to whether or not its own was efficient. In the event of a crisis arising peace advocates who object to our building up a navy would be absolutely powerless to prevent this country from going to war. A strong navy is the surest guarantee of peace that America can have, and the cheapest insurance against war that Uncle Sam can buy."

MEMBER OF THE UNITED PRESS

THE DAWN OF THE POLITICAL MILLENNIUM

Party principles, not personalities, should enter the canvass of every political campaign. No party or party member should so forget itself or himself as to allow personalities to enter into the discussions of any political movement that is before the people for their consideration and action. Whenever personalities are allowed to enter political discussions the party is always weakened, and whenever party principle is presented there always follows a degree of sanction that fosters party growth.

All men make mistakes, and no man desires to see his mistakes placarded to public gaze. The party leader who deals in personal abuse and personal criticism, weakens the party he represents, for no matter how strong the argument in favor of such practice, there always comes a time of reaction.

Politics is gradually growing more wholesome. The people are generally asking for a better political code and a better procedure. The political transactions of today are not what they were a few years ago; any student of time and conditions knows this truth. There are a few who hold on to the old methods and the old way of doing things, yet the many see the need of a change and are silently working toward such ends. It will not be long until a man whose character is in question cannot hope for political recognition.

UP AND A-COMING

The latest bulletin issued by the California Promotion Committee contains much to indicate improved and improving financial and industrial conditions and fine crop and market prospects. The first shipments of the California deciduous fruit crop are now going forward, and reports received by the Promotion Committee are to the effect that cherries will be a fair crop but lighter than last year; apricots will be light in early varieties with promise of better crop in late, contrary to early indications; peaches promise an abundance of all shipping varieties; Bartlett pears give good promise; grapes are well advanced and an abundant crop is anticipated; prunes give promise of good supply as do plums. In quality fruit promises to be above the average.

Heavy crop and large size fruit is the report that comes from citrus fruit districts. Crop movement is greater than at this period last year. Large quantities of lemons are being held waiting favorable market conditions.

Colonist travel in California during the past two months has been steady with marked increase over that of last year. Inquiries from home-seekers, both at headquarters of the committee and at its various agencies, show marked increase. Tourist travel promises to be above the average during the coming summer, as California's advantages as an all-year resort are becoming better known.

Reports from all cities and towns of the state show constantly improving conditions, there being a noticeable increase in bank clearings, and strengthening of wholesale trade. Building activity is also reported from all points.

THE OLD SOLDIERS IN THE SANTA ANA CHECKER CLUB

(By One of Them)
Here in this port, securely shored, Full many a human ship lies moored, Freightened with cares, of this life, stored,
Each Barque a ship, on life's great sea,
Each record ("log") a mystery, Resting here by this summer sea. I love to see the gray heads, bending low,
To hear the conversation's rippling flow,
The exclamation of delight, o'er vanquished foe,
At the game's end.

And the still stronger, "Yes, you know,
On Shiloh's field, or Chatanooga height,"
While mild eyes look thro' "specs" with keen delight,
Recount some incident of by-gone days;
Stopping the game, the other fellow plays.

I love to clasp some old "vet's" hand,
And think we've stood in wars-away,
Feeling its shock from day to day,
And know from look of eye, we'd stay.
They oft seem back, on life's fair track,
When life was young and full of dreams,
Like young bird fallen from nest on high,

Looking forever, far and nigh,
Dreaming each dream I wean
As reach from earth to sky;
The poet's soul, music's far cry,
Bringing to age its lullaby,
May be a mute, inglorious lay,
A dumb harp tuned from day to day,
Along life's disappointing way.
The harp, attuned to angel choir,
With broken human strings,
The singing bird, fluttering higher
On trembling broken wings.

I wonder oft, while conning o'er,
If strings and wings, and poet's lay
Will all be mended on that shore
They'll sail for, some bright day.
Some day each barque shall sail that sea,
Toward life's glowing West,
Like sun at eve toward his repose,
Seeking his evening rest.

There palaces rise, fair and high,
With walls of pearl and streets of gold,
Tuning sweet anthems higher and higher,
The repressed of this life there to unfold,
But I don't know.
On heavens' eternal camping ground,
It may be bugles blow,
And many a camp of white tents spread,

Are standing row on row;
And fires are playing now the tunes
Old soldiers used to know.
Maybe Old Glory flies unfolded
In that celestial air,
Blessing the comrades as they climb
Up, up the golden stair.
Flag of our country, hearts and home,
Reaching from earth to heaven's dome!

TRAMP IS FOUND ILL UNTO DEATH

Alone for Three Days, Ill With Pneumonia, Unfortunate Discovered in Orange

Huddled under a pair of dirty gray blankets, with a piece of canvas between him and the damp ground, Robt. Marshall, a tramp, was found yesterday morning sick with pneumonia, in a leanto of an old house just north of the Santiago packing house in Orange. The Orange News tells the story thus: "Without food, with a temperature of 104, dirty and unkempt, ill almost unto death, the unfortunate man had lain alone and untended since Saturday. But for the accidental finding of the man by an Italian fruit peddler, who notified workmen at the packing house, the tramp might have died alone in the shack. Dr. Ida Parker, city health officer, was called, and notified the county officers who took the man to the Santa Ana hospital.

"The man was in a terrible condition of filthiness, covered with flies, and stupid from his illness, when discovered. He aroused enough to answer questions, but was in a serious condition when taken to the hospital. He wore a Masonic pin on his clothes, but it was not ascertained if he was a member of the order."

An Interesting Meeting

A large number of the members and friends of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church were delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Smart, who was assisted by Mrs. Curry. Devotional exercises were led by Miss Barber, and were followed by an interesting program on our work among the Freedmen and Indians. At the close, a short business session was held, after which the social hour and dainty refreshments were greatly enjoyed.

In the Park

Mrs. H. T. Rutherford varied the usual procedure of the Tuesday afternoon Whist Club this week by entertaining the ladies at a picnic in Orange County Park. The picnic dinner, served on tables under the spreading live oaks that make the park so alluring, was made more attractive by the decorations of the feathery golden mustard blossoms that are beginning to make the land lovely.

The ladies in the party, besides Mrs. Rutherford, were Mesdames Connell, Huff, Roper, Tubbs, Turner, Walker, Daniels, Porter, Thomas, Parsons, Miss Harrison.

Pro Bono Class Meeting

The members of the Pro Bono class of the United Presbyterian church will hold their May business meeting and social Friday evening, May 7, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ramsey, 820 Parton street, who will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Elgin.

This meeting will be an eventful one, and much interest has been aroused. Matters of importance will be considered and features unique will be introduced.

Donation Is Appreciated

Miss M. Christine Kerl wishes to voice the thanks of the Spanish Mission to the members of the City Union of Christian Endeavor for the grand surprise that was given last week, by the placing of two dozen chairs in the Mission hall.

Attraction for Garden Party

Prospects are glowing for the success of the Garden Party to be given next Thursday at the W. H. Burnham place for the benefit of the Children's Orphan Home. Ladies are responding most cordially to the demands of the occasion, and there promises to be a large attendance at the pretty fete.

One of the picturesque features that has been arranged is a Japanese tea booth, from which the "nectar that cheers and does not inebriate" will be served by charming young women in Japanese costumes. The ladies who will dispense tea for the patrons of the fete are Mrs. Clyde Walker, Misses Harrison and Wakeham.

The Sunshine Society

The Sunshine Society of Santa Ana has had two valuable meetings lately, both of which were held at the home of Mrs. Roy Bishop.

At the April meeting, after an appetizing dinner served by the hostess, a business meeting was held, in which a contribution was made for the fresh air fund of the Sunshine Home in New York, also a contribution to the Blind Babies' Home in the same city.

The National Sunshine convention is to be held in New York next month, and Mesdames Geo. Magill and A. J. Lawton were appointed as delegates from Santa Ana.

The May meeting of the society was largely social, and the dinner, to which each lady contributed some delicacies, was a genuine picnic feast, spread and enjoyed in the beautiful rose arbor on the Bishop place. The afternoon's occupation was the tying of a comfort for Mrs. Swift.

The next one of these pleasant meetings will be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Barton, South Main street.

Delegates to Rebekah Assembly

Those who will attend the State Rebekah Assembly next week are the following: From Santa Ana Sycamore lodge, Mesdames J. E. Liebig, Squires, Kroll, Peters; Torosa lodge, Mesdames Fred Parsons, Theo. Lacy, Clyde Bishop; Orange, Mesdames Crawford and Davis; Westminster, Mrs. Hennacy. The party will go on a special train engaged for the Southern California delegates, and will leave for the north on next Sunday evening, expecting to be gone fifteen days.

The family of J. T. Raitt has returned from Modesto and will once more take up permanent residence here, as Mr. Raitt has again identified himself with the business life of Santa Ana, being manager of the Jersey Dairy Farm. Their friends are glad to welcome them.

J. E. Tillotson is at home from Highland and is apparently much improved in health as the result of a stay at that altitude.

Splendid Work in "Elijah"

The ushers for the "Elijah" concert have been instructed to close the doors of the hall promptly at the time of the beginning of the concert tomorrow night, and to keep them closed for eight minutes, the time consumed for the opening solo, overture and chorus of the oratorio. It will greatly contribute to the pleasure of the audience and aid in more efficient work by the singers, if those who attend will bear this in mind and be present before the opening number.

The "Elijah" rehearsal of last evening was held in Spurgeons Hall, with the soloists taking their parts, and was surprisingly good. It promised a noteworthy production on tomorrow night, Friday, May 7, of this master piece of oratorio work.

Besides the splendid chorus work, the trio, quartet and double quartet numbers are especially pleasing. Of the local soloists, everyone knows of their musical fitness for such work as the great oratorio demands.

The outside singers are the best to be had in Southern California. Mr. Abraham Miller's reputation as an oratorio singer being well known. Of one particular solo in "Elijah" which he sings most delightfully, the Los Angeles Herald says:

"Mr. Miller gained repeated calls for his solo, 'Then Shall the Righteous Shine.'"

The Pasadena News says of Mr. Edwin House:

"Mr. House possesses a baritone of much cultivation and beautiful quality, and he sings with ease and excellent expression. His voice shows much reserve force, and it has a rich tonal quality which makes his song interpretation a pleasure."

All Day Meeting

The Women's Societies of the First Methodist church held their monthly all-day meeting yesterday at the church. The ladies aid had an important session in the forenoon, and in the afternoon the Home and Foreign Missionary societies gave a program under direction of Mrs. Wm. Miller.

The successful noon luncheon was managed by a committee of ten ladies, with Mrs. D. M. Burns as chairman, and the ladies were complimented on the fine meal set before their guests, who were many.

Informal Dance

Miss Carrie Yoch was hostess at an informal dancing party last evening, at which dainty refreshments were served after the dancing.

The guests of the evening were Misses Shirley, Lena and Hazel Thomas, Florence Mullinix, Lundy, Hayes, Fleming; Messrs. Wilford and Robert Collins, Robert Whitson, Ralph Walbridge, Ellis Breen, Arthur Lutz, Cecil Dubois.

Friends Surprised Mr. Parker

Mr. C. H. Parker, connected with the Edison Electric Co., was a very much surprised man last evening, when the members of the Edison force and their wives, with a few other friends, walked into his home and congratulated him on reaching his thirty-seventh birthday.

A joyous evening of progressive crokinole and other games was enjoyed, but the most delightful result for Mr. Parker was the presentation to him of a beautiful solid gold Eagle's button, the gift of the company.

Then there was a handsomely decorated birthday cake, on which Mr. Parker's name and age appeared in bold relief. The honored gentleman cut the cake into generous slices for the guests, and these with other refreshments of delicious ice cream, cake, candies and nuts, made a birthday feast which all enjoyed.

A Dinner Party

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Wotton entertained last evening very delightfully at dinner, with Mr. and Mrs. Grant La Frenaye, Mr. and Mrs. George Balderston, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bellows, Mr. and Mrs. George Edgar as guests.

Fraternal Aid Box Social

The box social given by the Fraternal Aiders last night was a decided success, both financially and socially. $20 was realized, this sum to go towards buying appropriate uniforms for the drill staff.

Two people were initiated into the mysteries of the order, and several applications were brought in, proving that this order is right to the front and becoming one of the leading fraternities of the city.

Mr. George Smith demonstrated that he knew his business when he auctioned off the boxes. The way he induced his fellow men to go down in their pockets and bring out the big round dollars, was a mystery, known only to himself.

The banquet hall was attractive with jardinières of red geraniums, and here the tables were spread for the refreshments that formed the contents of the dainty lunch boxes. Hot coffee was served with the delicacies that were produced.

After refreshments, dancing was enjoyed. A feature of the evening was the presentation of the prize for the prettiest May basket or lunch box, to Mrs. Ello Richards. The prize was a beautiful cup and saucer.

WANTS SERVICE TO THE BEACH BETTERED

Committee From Chamber of Commerce to Take Matter up With Railroad

NOT FOR REDUCTION OF TARIFF ON SUGAR

Loop Motor Car Service to be Taken up With Espee Officials Very Shortly

The board of directors of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce last night appointed a committee consisting of L. J. Carden, H. C. Kellogg and H. T. Rutherford to prepare a resolution to be sent to the Southern Pacific asking for more frequent trains between Santa Ana and Newport Beach. The reason for the action was that recently the railroad discontinued one of its afternoon trains. Another matter in which the Southern Pacific is to be petitioned is the matter of a motor car service on the Santa Ana, Newport Beach, Huntington Beach, Smeltzer, Westminster, Anaheim and West Orange loop. Petitions have been signed in the different localities. Last night H. G. Ames of Santa Ana and Mr. Stone of Westminster presented their petitions. Arrangements are now to be made for a date with railroad officials at which time the matter will be presented and discussed.

The chamber's committee to which was referred a proposed resolution asking representatives at Washington to work for a reduction of tariff on sugar recommended that no action be taken inasmuch as a reduction on sugar would be a detriment to this county. The recommendation was accepted.

A letter from the Pasadena Board of Trade was read in regard to the movement to get a through train twice a day between Santa Ana and Pasadena. The letter inquired for an estimate of the number of people likely to make the trip daily. The letter was referred to the chamber's committee on the matter.

President Dobson was instructed to appoint a committee of three to get up literature for the use of the Chamber of Commerce, to be paid for from the $250 promised the chamber by the city trustees.

A representative of the Western Monthly asked and was given the chamber's endorsement for his publication. The chamber is to get a ten or fifteen-page write-up of this community in the magazine free, and the endorsement is to be used only in soliciting subscribers. The magazine is published in Salt Lake City.

President Dobson reported that a committee from the chamber had appeared before the Board of Supervisors in regard to moving the county hospital and that the matter is to be taken up by a committee of the whole of the supervisors.

An Extraordinary Offer

THE GREATEST EVER MADE BY ANY NEWSPAPER

Three Great National Magazines

Absolutely Free

For Old and New Subscribers

BUSINESS men advertise—frequently they make tremendous sacrifices to attract new customers. We believe in this policy, and practice what we preach by doing something each year to attract new subscribers and to favor our old readers who are entitled to an occasional good thing.

After pending several months in search of a premium, we finally decided we could not offer a better or more useful or attractive premium than a combination of high-class home magazines, and chose "World's Events," "Home Herald" and "Vick's Magazine" on account of their high character and literary quality.

We do not hesitate to say that we regard our offer this year to be the most extraordinary ever offered by any newspaper in this vicinity. We offer these three magazines in connection with a new or renewal subscription to our own paper on such favorable terms that we do not see how it is possible for a single reader not to take advantage of it. We want you to read every word of this announcement. Read the description below of the three magazines. Read the terms of our offer and accept at once.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Lady Thompson strawberries sold as low as 2 cents a basket, or 60 cents a crate, yesterday morning. They were all of good quality, but the market was forced lower to create extra demand. Brandywines sold from 75 to 90 cents a crate and Klondikes held the market for highest prices, selling up to 1.00 a crate. The canners are beginning now to fill their orders from the daily increasing supply and it is estimated that the five strawberry canners in this city will consume at least a car of berries a day from now until the middle or end of July. Cherries are arriving in larger quantities every day and the first good shipment of bulk cherries received here, came in yesterday morning. The bulk cherries brought 12 to 15 cents a pound. Logans were as plentiful as usual and prices were unchanged on them. Egg receipts were 754 cases. There were no special features, the market depending entirely on the current demand to move arrivals. Case-count local were the best sellers.

No changes were marked in butter. Prices were steady and sales normal. Receipts of the commodity were 20,417.

Yesterday was a quiet day in cheese. Oregon and eastern Daisy cheese sold best. Offerings of northern were heavy. Eastern singles were called for, but were held too high. No cheese receipts were reported.

Potato arrivals were nearly 12 cars. The market, as a result, was not quite as firm as on the day previous. There was only a fair demand for spuds and Highlands sold better than the others. A car of onions from Coachella further weakened the market. There was no actual decline quoted, but prices were lower among the jobbers. Some Bermudas sold as low as 1.00 a crate.

Sweet potatoes are moving slowly, with irregular receipts. Arrivals from the outside were less than a hundred sacks and prices were fixed entirely as to quality.

The first summer squash of the season are now on the market. They are shipped in from Imperial Valley and are holding at 1.50 a box. Some northern rhubarb was received yesterday and sold for 1.65 a box. Local is selling from 1.00 to 1.25 a box. Cabbage was a trifle more plentiful and the market eased off so that some of it sold down to 75c a sack. There was little call for bunch goods. Beets sold from 15 to 20 cents per dozen bunches. Turnips brought the same figure. Asparagus moved very slowly.

There were no changes in meat. Live stock is all holding at present quotations and packers look for another rise previous to the summer declines, which are usual at that time.

Fish were plentiful and the demand sufficient to care for arrivals. Grain has been unchanged and hay is selling at unaltered figures.

WHERE LIES COUNTY LINE?

Riverside Committee Gets Busy on Improvements of Santa
Ana Canyon Road

Riverside county is getting busy on the improvement of the Santa Ana canyon road. As yet there has been no conference between the Riverside committee and the committee from the Associated Chamber of Commerce of Orange county. The following is taken from a report of the sessions of the Riverside Board of Supervisors:

"A committee composed of George Frost, Charles H. Low, W. B. Clancy, G. Rouse and E. P. Clarke appeared before the board to present the matter of the improvement of the road through Santa Ana canyon.

"Mr. Low said that the Riverside end of the road was in bad shape, and that the Orange county end had been repaired.

"Supervisor Hammer replied that the boundary line between the two counties was not at the monument, as Mr. Low supposed, but was five miles this side. He insisted that the Riverside county section of the road was in good shape. He suggested that the committee go over the road and that a monument be placed by the county surveyor on the county line.

"Mr. Frost urged that in the Rincon section a change in the line of the road should be made to avoid a bill with heavy grade.

"Mr. Frost and Mr. Low of the good roads committee were appointed a special committee to aid in establishing the boundary line, together with Supervisor Hammer and Surveyor Pearson."

ROMERO FREE SAYS COURT

Habeas Corpus Proceedings in Superior Court Let Him Out
on Recorder's Error

Martin Romero of Huntington Beach goes hence because the Huntington Beach court did not allow sufficient time to elapse between the time of conviction and the time of sentence. Romero was fined $250 for selling liquor in the new city, and went to jail instead of paying the fine. Habeas corpus proceedings were begun by Attorney Bell of Santa Ana on the ground that Romero was not allowed his statutory rights of having time to prepare a motion for a new trial. The matter was argued yesterday afternoon before Judge West by Attorney Bell for Romero and City Attorney Blodgett for Huntington Beach. After hearing the case, Judge West ordered the writ to issue and Romero was given his liberty.

MAKING PATHS FOR BIG SHIPS

Dredging Company Lays Plans
For a Record Breaking
Job

SAN PEDRO, May 6.—Four miles of channel, eighteen feet deep at low water, are to be dredged in the inner harbor within one year from the date work began, if the plans of the North American Dredging Company are carried out successfully. Few harbors on the coast, say officials of the concern, can boast of such rapid work as this. To complete the job three dredging machines will be working continuously until the end of this year.

The big suction dredger Pacific, now in the Southern Pacific slip here, recently established a record for rapid harbor development at Gray's Harbor. This mammoth machine will be taken to the inner harbor the last of this week for work on the channel west of Mormon Island Peninsula. The bulkheads for this section are now being thrown up by the clam-shell dredger, Golden Gate. The electric dredger, now working on the channel at the upper end of the Wilmington turning basin leading to the mills of the Consolidated Lumber Company, will have completed this work in about a week.

It is the purpose of the company to complete a channel from the San Pedro turning basin up the west side of Mormon Island, to the foot of E street, Wilmington, by January 1, 1910. This channel is to be eighteen feet deep and 100 feet wide on the bottom.

The total length of these channels will be nearly 20,000 feet, or about four miles. Work was commenced with the smaller dredgers several months ago, but the awarding of additional contracts induced the dredging company to bring the big suction dredger down from the North and rush the work. This is not the first work done in this harbor by the dredger Pacific. The three dredgers have a capacity of 400,000 cubic yards per month.

BURGLAR SEARCHED STORE FOR MONEY

The latter part of last week a burglar broke into the Ozment store at Harper. He made a thorough search of the place, but took nothing away with him. He was evidently looking for money, and finding none he went his way.

Wintersburg Jap Buys Land

Another Japanese, making three or four altogether, has secured title to land in Orange county. The deed to the property has been recorded. The piece of ground is ten acres in the lowlands, and is described as the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, section 26, township 5 south, range 11 west. The purchaser is Iwasuke Nakazaki of Wintersburg, and the grantors are Ida Caldwell, Wallace and Emma Blaylock and John and F. B. Dubois.

HARPER IS GAINING PLACE ON THE MAP

It Now Has a Schoolhouse,
Store, Postoffice, Telephone Pay Station

On the mesa, on the Southern Pacific between Santa Ana and Newport Beach, is a place that is getting on the map. It is Harper. Harper has a schoolhouse and a store. Mr. Ozment, the storekeeper, has been given a postoffice and a telephone station. Plans are afoot to divide up a small tract there into town lots. The five-acre tracts of Newport Heights, adjoining, are gradually settling up, and those who live thereabouts feel confident of continuous growth.

ANOTHER TEST ACTION BEGUN

If Newman's Salary is Legal,
Then Provisions of New Bill
Are to Go Into Force

A test case has been begun in the superior court by Attorneys Williams & Rutan for Deputy County Assessor W. R. Newman. The defendant is County Auditor Lester, and the purpose is to test the new salary bill in its application to courthouse deputies other than those employed as field deputies in the assessor's office. It has already been determined that the field deputies have the legal right to the raises in their salaries.

Newman is on a different basis from the field deputies. He is appointed for the year round at a salary of $100, and the salary bill provides for a new office, as it does with several other offices in the courthouse. Newman's petition for a writ ordering that the warrant for his April salary be drawn is set for hearing on May 21. It may come up earlier on a demurrer.
